Cleveland, OH, January 9, 2015-

Cleveland ConCoction is northeast Ohio's fan-run, volunteer-run convention for all things Sci-Fi, Fantasy, Gaming, Filk and more multi-genre event. This local, not for profit organization is entirely run for the fans-by the fans.

The second-annual Cleveland ConCoction will be held March 13-15 at the Cleveland Airport Sheraton. Convention weekend memberships are available for pre-order until February 28 for $45 for adults and $15 for children 7-12. Weekend and Day event memberships will also be available at the door.

The Cleveland ConCoction staff is proud to welcome Emmy nominated voice actress Tasia Valenza as Guest of Honor. Valenza has provided her vocal talents to a variety of video games, such as Batman: Arkham Asylum and television shows, including Star Wars: The Clone Wars, where she provided the voice of General Shaak Ti. Other leading guests include author S. Andrew Swann, Artist M. Alice LeGrow, game creator Andy Looney of Looney Labs, and Coplay guests Knightmage, Mogchelle and Princess Nightmare in addition to authors, cosplayers, artists, musicians and gamemakers.

This year, Cleveland ConCoction is happy to introduce a literary track featuring numerous sci-fi and fantasy authors, several of whom are based in the Cleveland area. Authors will present workshops and be available for fans and aspiring authors.

Cosplay workshops and costume contests will allow costumers and cosplayers to show off their work, get new ideas and learn new techniques. Several cosplay guests will teach workshops and share their experiences to convention goers.

Entertainment will be in keeping with the steampunk theme of the convention with Philadelphia-based eclectic band and Guest This Way to the Egress, and local Cleveland belly dance troupe Les Odalisque.

For those looking to increase their personal game collections, a Play-to-Win program allows players to win one of fourteen board and card games donated by a variety of game makers. Games included are intended for a wide variety of interests, ages and skill levels, so all are welcome to try their luck, learn a new game and maybe make a new friend.

For the younger generation of geeks, a Kids' Room is available for gaming and fun. An all ages ConSuite is available for all badged members, and Saturday (3.14.15) will be celebrate of math and dessert in the ConSuite for Pi Day Pie Day.
